Jenny,

That is fine, we are using it as a document repository. Thank you for letting me know.

Subject: Question about Site Ownership and the Sharepoint Site

Hi Erica,

Kim decided to use the PFAS site she already had in existence for the Wolverine information instead of making a new site. I didn't add you as an owner because that site already has multiple owners. If you think you still need that functionality, please let me know and I will discuss it with Kim.

Thank you,
Jenny
